

DAY OF ACCIDENTS MARS AUTO RACES

Buick Car Turns Turtle and Driver Narrowly Escapes Death.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, November 17.—Driving his Buick racer at a terrific pace into the stretch, turn today in the six-hour race, the closing event of the four days' automobile meet, Robert Burman narrowly escaped death when his machine overturned and hurled him to the ground. Burman was badly shaken up and severely bruised, but not seriously injured. The car turned a complete somersault, just missing Burman when it fell to the ground.

Of the five cars which started in the race, four were wrecked or withdrawn. The Chalmers-Detroit car, driven by Ben Johnson, was awarded first prize after covering 215 miles in 4 hours and 52 minutes. The second and third prizes were pooled and divided between Clark and Dehmel.

The race started at 11 o'clock this morning, the entrants being Barry Oldfield, in a Knott car; Tobin Dehmel, in a Stoddard-Dayton; George Clark, in a Jackson; Ben Johnson, in a Chalmers-Detroit "30," and Burman, in a Buick.

On the fifth lap a connecting rod broke on the Knott car, and Oldfield dropped out of the race.

With the Stoddard-Dayton and Jackson cars on their 20th lap, the latter but a few lengths in the rear of the Dehmel car, the front wheel on the Stoddard-Dayton machine whirled off a hundred yards into a field. Immediately behind it, George Clark, driving the Jackson, seeing that a fatal collision with Dehmel was imminent, Clark pointed his car straight at the high embankment and shot over it. The Stoddard came to a stop fifty yards further on. Clark safely retained his seat in the flying Jackson as it leaped over the barrier and landed upright a dozen feet below the outer edge. He was not hurt.

Some dealers sometimes push off to their customers these inferior imitations of "Grape," on account of the larger profit.

HARD GAME ENDS WITH SCORE 11-10

Fishburne Military School Defeats Randolph-Macon Academy.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WAYNESBORO, VA., November 17.—On Monday, November 15, Fishburne Military School defeated Randolph-Macon Academy in one of the fastest and most exciting games of the season, by the score of 11 to 10.

From the very first the game was clean and hard-fought, excellent plays being made by both sides. The first half closed with the score 5 to 0 in favor of Randolph-Macon Academy. However, during the first few minutes of the second half Fishburne scored and kicked goal. Then soon after this Randolph-Macon Academy made another touchdown, but failed again to kick goal, making the score 10 to 6.

During the next four minutes of play Mollie (captain) made one of the most daring and wonderful runs for Fishburne that has ever been witnessed by men, carrying the ball sixty yards, passing seven Randolph-Macon men, who were unable to tackle him, and winning the game by scoring Fishburne's second touchdown.

Morrow and Melver also played star ball, while Legg, Todd and Smith did the feature work for Randolph-Macon Academy. Referee—May Hudgins. Umpire—Professor Thrasher. Time of halves—20 minutes.

AMUSEMENTS.

PRESS NOTES FROM THE THEATRES.

"The Golden Girl."

Ensembles of dazzling gorgeousness and a host of novel stage effects fairly bewildered the audience at the first glimpse of "The Golden Girl," the latest production of Hough, Adams and Howard, which comes to the Academy Saturday, matinee and night.

The curtain rises on the grounds at West Point, with the Stars and Stripes fluttering in the breeze and the Hudson gleaming between the palisades in the distance. The appeal of the unoccupied stage, eloquent with a thrilling significance, is instantaneous.

The atmosphere of romance, subtle but real, marks both the opening and the close of this interesting music play. Between is the dream scene, with its novelties, in which the two principal characters have visions of the past and future. He has boasted of his noble ancestry, but now sees them as they really were; the four branches of his family, free being a convict, a pirate, an anarchist and a loan shark—all of humorous proclivities. The girl also dreams that she sees herself married to another rich suitor, and turned into a statue of gold.—Adv.
